Wall of Honor
180 West Maple Street, Johnstown, Ohio

Thank you for your interest in supporting the Johnstown American Legion Post 254 Wall of Honor. Dedicated on August 22, 2015, the Wall of Honor is built on a recycled stone block base with four pillars housing engraved stone tablets and supporting six (6) brick panels (three forward and three rear.) Each panel has the capacity to house one hundred ninety-five (195) engraved bricks.

To purchase an engraved brick:

- Engraved bricks may be purchased in recognition of non-profit military organizations or an individual who is currently serving or has previously served in the United States Military, Military Reserve, or Military National Guard. A military organization or person who meets the above criteria may also anonymously purchase a brick with an inscribed quotation.
- A minimum donation of seventy-five dollars ($75), along with a completed request form, is required for each engraved brick.
- Brick engraving is limited to three (3) lines with sixteen (16) characters per line. Space breaks and punctuation are counted as characters.

To purchase an engraved stone tablet:

- Engraved stone tablets may be purchased by individuals and organizations in support of the Wall of Honor.
- A minimum donation of three thousand dollars ($3,000) is required for an engraved stone tablet.
- The inscription on a stone tablet is chosen by the donor. Contact our Incription Coordinator for more details. (Charlie Sullivan 740-641-3821 or alpost254@gmail.com)

Other ways to support the Wall of Honor:

- Monetary donations to support the Wall of Honor are always welcome and greatly appreciated. Wall of Honor donations are held in a Wall of Honor Fund and are used to maintain the Wall and to provide security and improvements to the surrounding area.
- Visit the Wall of Honor and bring your family and friends. The Wall is free and open to the public year round between dawn and dusk.

Please note: Any engraved brick or tablet request that does not include the required minimum donation will be rejected. Brick and tablet inscriptions are subject to review by the Johnstown American Legion Post 254 Wall of Honor Committee and may be rejected if deemed inappropriate.
